

IMPLEMENTING NATIONAL SECURITY STRATEGY

Mode: Lecture

Lesson No. SRC-13-L

1. Introduction. GEN (Ret) Montgomery Miegs will present his views on implementing national security strategy. A question and answer period following the presentation will provide students with an opportunity to discuss issues raised by the speaker.

2. Learning Objectives.

- a. Analyze the role of military strategic leadership in the current national security environment.
- b. Summarize the challenges facing current and future military leadership in the context of national security development and implementation.
- c. Analyze the current environment and the implementation of national security strategy.

3. PAJE Learning Areas and Objectives. Distance Education Course Catalogue, Class of 2006, pages 11-13, Learning Area 1a-c, 2a-d, 3a-c, 4a-e, 5a-d, 6a.

4. Student Requirements.

- a. Tasks.
  - (1) Be prepared to participate in the question and answer session.
  - (2) Be prepared to discuss briefly the most pressing problems facing the Nation and the military and how they relate to issues raised by the speaker.
- b. Required readings.
  - (1) Scan: Speaker's biography.
  - (2) Review: Victory in Iraq

5. Instructional Commentary. None

6. Points to Consider.

- a. What senior leader imperative faces strategic leaders as they attempt to implement national security policy?
- b. What were the key elements of national security strategy and its implementation emphasized by the speaker?
- c. What were the key challenges, as seen by the speakers, today and into the future, with regard to national security strategy implementation?